Ordinance 2007-5

An Ordinance permitting all trash containers, recyclable containers or any other containers to be placed curbside as early as 12:00 noon prevailing time on the day before collection. All containers are to be removed from the curbside no later than 12 midnight on the day of collection. Each dwelling unit shall mark the containers with their house number.

2013 Street Projects

Street projects scheduled for 2013 include reconstruction of Griffith Avenue from Maple to Pennsylvania Avenue and new compacted stone surfaces for Maple and Pine Streets. Following the storm sewer replacement in West Pennsylvania Avenue in 2012, the Borough will now be performing restoration and repaving of the street surface. In the future, the Borough would like to rebuild East Pennsylvania Avenue including curbs and sidewalks and also Hill Street. Funds are insufficient at the present time to move forward with either of these projects.

Sewer & Water Authority

The Stewartstown Borough Authority's wastewater treatment plant continues to perform extremely well and as such will allow the Authority to participate in the Chesapeake Bay Nutrient Credit Trading Program as a seller of nitrogen and phosphorus credits. The Authority is in the process of renewing the General Permit for Class A, Exceptional Quality biosolids produced by its wastewater treatment plant in Hopewell Township. Rehabilitation and repair work will begin soon on two tanks at the treatment plant constructed in 1973. Rehab work on these two tanks plus one other will continue into 2014.

The Authority is now reviewing options for completely rebuilding and enlarging Wellhouse #4, which was constructed in 1975. This is the oldest Wellhouse in Stewartstown's water supply system.

SAFE & HAPPY HOLIDAY SEASON !

STEWARTSTOWN POLICE CORNER

During inclement weather- use caution while driving and walking, tune into WGAL for Snow Emergency Phases. Remember to keep sidewalks clear for the safety of others.

Holidays are approaching- please don't drink and drive. Appoint a designated driver, and call 911 if you witness an impaired driver.

Trick-or-Treating-make sure your children's costumes are visible to motorists. Reflector strips, flashlights or glow sticks can make them more visible. Please drive with extra caution during trick-or-treating, October 31st, from 6-8 pm in the borough.

Please be extra vigilant of your surroundings while shopping at malls and other centers during the holidays. Reminder to please call 911 if you need an officer and/or to make a report. Only call the office if it is an administrative question or concern. Do not leave a message for an officer, 911 should be called since officers are normally patrolling the area and will be dispatched through 911.

Have a safe & happy holiday season !
